

Reliance rights issue

Record date for Reliance Rights issue is 14th May 2020 on that day any client who is having shares in his demat account will be automatically be eligible and RTA will provide application form.

Also all eligible shareholders will be credited with rights entitlement (RE) in there demat account and the same can be sold if client does not want to participate in issue. The RE will be in the form of temporary demat securities which will expire if the rights are not exercised.

The rights entitlement ratio is 1 (one) equity share for every 15 (fifteen) equity shares held as on the record date

You need to visit the RTA website (<https://rights.kfintech.com/>) and using the RTA's payment gateway, pay for the application from your bank account.

Please keep your DP ID, Pan Number, Bank account number & Client ID handy for the same. You can also use your bank payment gateway via ASBA to submit your application just like an IPO.
